We gather to commemorate the great sacrifice made by so many Australians and New Zealanders who served their nation in times of conflict to protect the liberty we enjoy today.

We remember our 251 Old Boys who gave their lives in conflicts from the Sudan to Vietnam, never to return home to those they loved. Some here, today, pay respect to family members who lie somewhere in a foreign field.

Poignantly, yesterday marked the centenary of that seminal day in our Nation’s past when Australian and New Zealand troops gallantly stormed ashore at what is now known as Anzac Cove on the Gallipoli Peninsula. 16 King’s Old Boys lost their lives in this disastrous and ill-conceived campaign with one of the first to be killed, the Captain of the School of 1906, Captain Stewart Milson.

Since our foundation, a central tenet of a King’s School education has been the preparation of young men who will go out into the world to serve their community. This spirit of service was clearly evident at the outbreak of hostilities in 1914.

The School was strongly patriotic, eager and proud for its boys to answer the clarion call to defend the empire. At the time of the Great War the School numbered merely 220 boys. Such was the enthusiasm to serve that 665 enlisted to fight overseas, a figure representing three generations of King’s boys. Of these one in every seven lost their life and one in ten obtained distinction.

Today we pause to honour the courage, endurance, sacrifice and human spirit of all those who paid the ultimate sacrifice in order to defend our way of life.

We remember those ordinary men and women who did things so extraordinary in times of great trial, things that test our powers to imagine. Your presence today demonstrates we have not forgotten nor will we forget. We remember them all with fondness, great appreciation and respect.

May they rest with God.

Hymn
Guide me O Thou great Jehovah
Pilgrim through this barren land
I am weak but Thou art mighty
Hold me with Thy pow’rful hand
Bread of heaven Bread of heaven
Feed me now and ever more
Feed me now and ever more

Open Thou the crystal fountain
Whence the healing stream doth flow
Let the fiery cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through
Strong Deliverer strong Deliverer
Be Thou still my strength and shield
Be Thou still my strength and shield

When I tread the verge of Jordan
Bid my anxious fears subside
Death of death and hell’s destruction
Land me safe on Canaan’s side
Songs of praises songs of praises
I will ever give to Thee
I will ever give to Thee

The Lord's Prayer
Our Father, which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come.
Thy will be done in earth,
As it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive them that trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
The power, and the glory,
For ever and ever.
Amen.

Hymn
I vow to thee my country
All earthly things above
Entire and whole and perfect
The service of my love
The love that asks no questions
The love that stands the test
That lays upon the altar
The dearest and the best
The love that never falers
The love that pays the price
The love that makes undaunted
The final sacrifice

And there's another country
I've heard of long ago
Most dear to them that love her
Most great to them that know
We may not count her armies
We may not see her King
Her fortress is a faithful heart
Her pride is suffering
And soul by soul and silently
Her shining bounds increase
And her ways are ways of gentleness
And all her paths are peace

Benediction

From this 1907 School Photo 67 people served their Country during WWI including Headmaster PS Waddy. Eighteen of the Old Boys pictured were Killed in Action.

Here is an extract from a letter dated 28 February 1918 to a mother of one of these boys from Deputy Headmaster, DJ Thomas.

Dear Mrs Warren,

I am so sorry to hear the sad news and feel deeply for you. The boys I had a great deal to do with at School and well remember how conscientious and hard working they both were. Geoff makes the sixty fifth TKS boy who has made the great sacrifice in his Country’s cause and has lived up to the motto of the Old School ‘Bravely and Faithfully’. I hope Ray although so badly wounded will be able to come back soon. We are proud of all these Old Boys who have done it all for our sakes.

Detailed profiles of these Old Boys can be found at www.kings.edu.au/ANZAC

The School acknowledges the dedicated work of our Archivist, Jenny Pearce with volunteers, June Davey and Trish Rogers, in compiling this information. Thanks also to Alexander Mai for making the profiles available on the School’s website.
ANZAC is not merely about loss. It is about courage, and endurance, and duty, and love of country, and mateship, and good humour and the survival of a sense of self-worth and decency in the face of dreadful odds.
